

This liturgy has been created to guide you through the readings, prayers, reflections and distribution of ashes on Ash Wednesday. It is designed to be used with the PC24 Primary ASH WEDNESDAY PowerPoint Presentation contained within the zip file downloaded from the Caritas Australia website.

You will require one leader and ten readers.

You might like to create a sacred space at the front of the gathering or include some special items to be carried forward in the procession. Some suggestions include:

- Purple linen as per the colour of the liturgical season
- Project Compassion posters and large donation boxes
- Symbols from each of the featured countries in Project Compassion 2024 (Philippines, Malawi, Samoa)

MAKE A PLEDGE

You may wish to ask students to write down a pledge prior to walking into the liturgy that incorporates the following phrase:

for all future generations

These can then be placed into a bowl in the sacred space after they receive their ashes, or at the start as students enter the liturgical space.

SLIDE 1: Ash Wednesday Liturgy – Project Compassion 2024

Music: Quiet instrumental music as the community settles.

Reader 1: Welcome to all our school family gathered here today: parents and carers, family members, students and teachers.

SLIDE 2: Introduction

Reader 2: As we gather to celebrate the beginning of the Church's season of Lent, we acknowledge the traditional custodians of this land, the _____ people. We acknowledge and offer our respect to their continuing culture and the contribution they make in the life of this region.

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the Church's season of Lent. The marking of the ashes on our foreheads on this day is a public expression of our faith and humility. It is a time of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Through prayer, we come closer to God so that we are better able to realise the promises made for us at our baptism, to live justly as Jesus teaches us. Fasting joins us in solidarity with people experiencing poverty who often have no choice but to go without the basic human needs. Sharing what we have, or 'almsgiving', is a sign of our commitment to justice and our thanks for all that God has given us.

Lent prepares us for the season of Easter, the most important time in the Church's calendar. By praying, fasting and giving alms, we are reminded of Jesus' death and resurrection. Jesus brought the promise of hope to all people so that we may, "have life and have it to the full" (John 10:10). As we live into that fullness, may we also be challenged to act with love and hope, now and for all future generations.

Please stand for our Gathering Song.

Reader 1: Let us begin in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

God of love,
You care for us and all in our global family.
You want for us all life in its fullness.
Help us see the challenges faced by so many.
Help us look for justice.
Fill our hearts with love.
Turn our compassion to action.
Help us renew the world,
now and for all future generations.
We ask this in Jesus's name.

All: Amen

SLIDE 5: Gospel Reading

This Gospel Reading, Matthew 6:1–4, is a translation from the Lectionary for Masses with Children.

It can be read by the Leader and two Readers.

Leader: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Leader: Jesus said to his disciples:

Reader 3: When you do good deeds, don't try to show off. If you do, you won't get a reward from God in heaven.

Reader 4: When you give to the poor, don't blow a loud horn. That's what showoffs do in the meeting places and on the street corners, because they are always looking for praise.

Reader 3: I promise you that they already have their reward.

Reader 4: When you give to the poor, don't let anyone know about it. Then your gift will be a secret. God knows what is done in secret and God will reward you.

Leader: The Gospel of the Lord

All: Praise to you Lord, Jesus Christ

SLIDE 6: Gospel Reflection

Leader: There is a time for everything:¹ times to be loud; times to be quiet; times to be happy; times to be sad; times to let things go; times to gather things up; times to celebrate and times to reflect.

Towards the end of Lent, the Church celebrates Palm Sunday. Palm Sunday is a loud time of celebration. That day, we remember the part of Jesus's story when he was greeted by a large crowd on his way into Jerusalem. The people were so excited that they "spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road." In celebration, they shouted, "Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!"² But Ash Wednesday leads us into a quieter time. Today, ashes made from branches once used in praise and celebration remind us how, after Jesus's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, another crowd gathered and called for his death on a cross.

Ashes on our foreheads mark the beginning of our journey through Lent. This quieter time is a time to reflect on Jesus's life and suffering and the ways he continually showed compassion to those around him. It's also a time to reflect on our own lives and the lives of all in our human family and the rest of creation. Today, we pause to reflect on it all: life's good bits and life's quiet, difficult, challenging bits. We can ask: what experience or situation makes me want to celebrate? What makes me want to cry? What moves me to compassion? What actions will I take to make a difference – in my own life? in the lives of other people? in the living creation?

Fasting, almsgiving and prayer can help us to reflect.

When you receive ashes on your forehead today, let them be an encouragement to share compassion with others. Let the ashes remind you especially of the experiences of those who do not have access to the basic needs of human life. And, as you ask, 'What can I do to care for them?', remember that when we stand together as a global family, challenging ourselves to live and act with love and hope, we make a difference, just as Christ does, now and for all future generations.

SLIDE 9: Our Father

Leader: Let us now pray together in the words that Jesus taught us.
Our Father...

SLIDE 10: Project Compassion 2023: For All Future Generations

Reader 7: Once again, Caritas Australia's Project Compassion theme is For All Future Generations. It is about hope and reminds us that the good we do today impacts the lives of people tomorrow.

This year, For all Future Generations is inspired by the story of Moses and the burning bush in the book of Exodus.³ Called by God, Moses dared to face his challenges to make a difference in the lives of the people around him.

Project Compassion 2024 shares stories of three women from the Philippines, Malawi and Samoa. Though they face very different challenges in their day-to-day lives, they are all united by their dream of creating a better tomorrow for themselves and for all future generations.

During Lent, our challenge is to respond to these stories courageously, with a yes to God's call to us all, to act for social and ecological justice.

Project Compassion is a timely reminder during Lent that by putting our faith and compassion in action today, we have the power to create lasting change for generations to come.
