

Niger
A small village in

Your location:

The Chuckwa
Family

You are:

Photo by Rémy Venturini on Unsplash

Family Role Card

- Your work: Rearing goats and selling their hides.
- Your task: To produce goat hides and take your produce to market. You do this by drawing and cutting out the shape of the hides using the template provided.
- Your goal: To provide a dignified life for your whole family. At the very minimum you want to stay above the poverty line.
- If you fall below the poverty line you may experience increasing hardships like illness, inability to pay for medication and school fees.
- The poverty line for your country can be seen on the balance sheet, which will be visible to all.
- Exchange: The banker/market will pay you for your produce – be aware they may drive a hard bargain. Your income will be registered and displayed on the electronic balance sheet.
- Elect: Elect one person to be the head of your family. It is the role of this person to make sure that everyone in your family participates in all the activities and discussions.

Be aware!

Your family may be affected by a number of things beyond your control. If and when things happen, as a family, you must discuss your situation in light of the new circumstances. You may be forced to make some difficult choices.

A small village in Bangladesh

Your location:

The Dhali Family
You are:

Photo by Md. Golam Mursheed on Unsplash

Family Role Card

- Your work: Planting and harvesting rice.
- Your task: To produce sacks of rice and take your produce to market. You do this by drawing and cutting out the shape of sacks containing rice using the template provided.
- Your goal: To provide a dignified life for your whole family. At the very minimum you want to stay above the poverty line.
- If you fall below the poverty line you may experience increasing hardships like illness, inability to pay for medication and school fees.
- The poverty line for your country can be seen on the balance sheet, which will be visible to all.
- Exchange: The banker/market will pay you for your produce – be aware they may drive a hard bargain. Your income will be registered and displayed on the electronic balance sheet.
- Elect: Elect one person to be the head of your family. It is the role of this person to make sure that everyone in your family participates in all the activities and discussions.

Be aware!

Your family may be affected by a number of things beyond your control. If and when things happen, as a family, you must discuss your situation in light of the new circumstances. You may be forced to make some difficult choices.

A small village in rural Tanzania

Your location:

The Change
Family

You are:

Photo by Rodrigo Flores on Unsplash

Family Role Card

Your work: Planting and harvesting coffee beans.

Your task: To produce sacks of coffee beans and take your produce to market. You do this by drawing and cutting out the shape of sacks containing coffee beans using the template provided.

Your goal: To provide a dignified life for your whole family. At the very minimum you want to stay above the poverty line.

If you fall below the poverty line you may experience increasing hardships like illness, inability to pay for medication and school fees.

The poverty line for your country can be seen on the balance sheet, which will be visible to all.

Exchange: The banker/market will pay you for your produce – be aware they may drive a hard bargain. Your income will be registered and displayed on the electronic balance sheet.

Elect: Elect one person to be the head of your family. It is the role of this person to make sure that everyone in your family participates in all the activities and discussions.

Be aware!

Your family may be affected by a number of things beyond your control. If and when things happen, as a family, you must discuss your situation in light of the new circumstances. You may be forced to make some difficult choices.

The outskirts of a busy city in the Philippines

Your location:

You are: The Navarro Family

Photo: Richard Wainwright/Caritas Australia

Family Role Card

- Your work: Designing and manufacturing Flip flops.
- Your task: To produce Flip flops and take your produce to market. You do this by drawing and cutting out the shape of Flip flops using the template provided..
- Your goal: To provide a dignified life for your whole family. At the very minimum you want to stay above the poverty line.
- If you fall below the poverty line you may experience increasing hardships like illness, inability to pay for medication and school fees.
- The poverty line for your country can be seen on the balance sheet, which will be visible to all.
- Exchange: The banker/market will pay you for your produce – be aware they may drive a hard bargain. Your income will be registered and displayed on the electronic balance sheet.
- Elect: Elect one person to be the head of your family. It is the role of this person to make sure that everyone in your family participates in all the activities and discussions.

Be aware!

Your family may be affected by a number of things beyond your control. If and when things happen, as a family, you must discuss your situation in light of the new circumstances. You may be forced to make some difficult choices.

A small village in
Bolivia

Your location:

The Lopez Family

You are:

Photo by Sofia Guaioco on Unsplash

Family Role Card

Your work: Rearing alpacas and producing wool.

Your task: To produce sacks of wool and take your produce to market. You do this by drawing and cutting out the shape of the woollen fleeces using the template provided.

Your goal: To provide a dignified life for your whole family. At the very minimum you want to stay above the poverty line.

If you fall below the poverty line you may experience increasing hardships like illness, inability to pay for medication and school fees.

The poverty line for your country can be seen on the balance sheet, which will be visible to all.

Exchange: The banker/market will pay you for your produce – be aware they may drive a hard bargain. Your income will be registered and displayed on the electronic balance sheet.

Elect: Elect one person to be the head of your family. It is the role of this person to make sure that everyone in your family participates in all the activities and discussions.

Be aware!

Your family may be affected by a number of things beyond your control. If and when things happen, as a family, you must discuss your situation in light of the new circumstances. You may be forced to make some difficult choices.

A small village in
Ecuador

Your location:

The Mendez Family

You are:

Photo: Richard Wainwright/Caritas Australia

Family Role Card

Your work: Collecting latex from rubber trees.

Your task: To produce barrels of latex and take your produce to market. You do this by drawing and cutting out the shape of barrels containing latex using the template provided.

Your goal: To provide a dignified life for your whole family. At the very minimum you want to stay above the poverty line.

If you fall below the poverty line you may experience increasing hardships like illness, inability to pay for medication and school fees.

The poverty line for your country can be seen on the balance sheet, which will be visible to all.

Exchange: The banker/market will pay you for your produce – be aware they may drive a hard bargain. Your income will be registered and displayed on the electronic balance sheet.

Elect: Elect one person to be the head of your family. It is the role of this person to make sure that everyone in your family participates in all the activities and discussions.

Be aware!

Your family may be affected by a number of things beyond your control. If and when things happen, as a family, you must discuss your situation in light of the new circumstances. You may be forced to make some difficult choices.